Don't forget to vote next Tuesday.

The Joseph F. Connery Real Estate Men's Club has been organized with a membership of 500 men connected with real estate agencies in the city. Mr. Connery, Democratic nominee for County Recorder, is endorsed because of the fact that he is the only experienced real estate man on the ballot and because of his experience in the handling of real estate.

Vote for Fred W. Block for member of the Board of Review.

Patrick H. O'Donnell, the eloquent Chicago lawyer, was the most popular speaker the Taft people had in Indiana. Mr. O'Donnell addressed two of the largest meetings held in Indianapolis.

Vote for Peter M. Hoffman for coroner.

A committee of three lawyers have decided "that in their opinion A. A. McCormick is eligible to serve as President of the County Board." But the people go by what the state constitution says and not by what any coterie of attorneys say.

Joseph F. Connery, business man and public spirited citizen, should be elected Recorder.

Vote for Joseph C. Blaha for state representative in the Nineteenth district.

The Amusement Protective league, made up of actors, musicians, exhibitors and operators of motion pictures, and affiliated organizations, has endorsed the candidacy of Edward F. Dunne, Democratic nominee for governor.

In a letter, signed by Joseph Hopp, president, and Al J. Flynn, secretary, sent out to its members, Judge Dunne is styled "a man with moral courage and an undaunted supporter of right and fair play."

Members are asked to persuade their friends to help elect him.

Vote for Joseph E. Bidwill, Jr., for Clerk of the Circuit Court.

One good turn deserves another. Vote for Joseph E. Bidwill, Jr., for Circuit Clerk.

Vote for John E. Maloney for county commissioner.

Joseph S. La Buy, the able lawyer and Democratic candidate for Municipal Judge, said in a speech the other night:

"Instead of making the Municipal court a place where the poor man could obtain justice at once," said Mr. La Buy, "Mr. Olson as chief justice and his Republican associates have made the new court one of the most expensive courts in the country."

"It is true that the court has paid its expenses, but it has been at the expense of the poor man and the widow with little or no means."

Vote to re-elect honest Joseph E. Bidwill, Jr., Clerk of the Circuit Court.

Vote for James M. Dalley for Sanitary Trustee.

Joseph F. Connery, Democratic candidate for Recorder, has been endorsed by the Chauffeurs' union, the Plumbers' union, the Steamfitters and Helpers' association, and the Marble Setters' union.

Vote for Peter Bartsen for president of the County Board and for member of the board.

Members of the Bricklayers and Stone Masons' Union are making a vigorous campaign for Peter Bartsen, candidate for president of the County Board. Committees are visiting other organizations nightly in his interest.

"The bricklayers are for old Peter Bartsen, said Peter M. Shaughnessy, president of the Bricklayers and Stonemasons' Union. "He was a member of our union for many years. Hundreds of our old members have worked on the same wall with Bartsen, and they know him through and through. They know that his heart is with the 'under dog'; that his help has brought happiness to many a poor family, and that he is absolutely sincere in his efforts to better the conditions in the county institutions. He is on the square."

Vote for Charles Krutchoff for county assessor.

The big army of friends of Stephen A. Malato are working like trojans to place that able and talented attorney on the Municipal bench. His election looks certain.

Vote for Joseph F. Connery for Recorder of Deeds.

Vote for William E. Mason for congressman-at-large.

Joseph F. Connery will make an ideal Recorder. Vote for him.

Peter Bartsen in a meeting at Steger, Ill., characterized the attacks made on him by Julius Rosenwald, James A. Patten, and Alexander A. McCormick as untrue. He said that the opposition to his candidacy lay with the Republican press of Chicago and with the so-called "charity" workers, who were fighting him because of the passage of the widows' pension fund, which deprived them of money because the wards of the county were not placed in the institutions in which they were interested. He reviewed the accomplishments of the present administration, citing the case where through his efforts the county collected some $4,000,000 from corporations for back taxes.

Dalley is a sure winner for Sanitary Trustee.

Vote for Joseph A. Weber for state representative in the Sixth district.

Honest Peter Bartsen will be re-elected President of the County Board.

Edward F. Dunne will be elected governor of Illinois on the fifth of November without any doubt.

The people are flocking to his support in all parts of the state and nothing can beat him.

Governor Deneen has made many enemies in his own party and thousands of Republicans will vote for Judge Dunne because they believe him to be the best man for the office.

Vote for Spencer Ward for chief justice of the Municipal Court.

The election of Hugh J. Kearns as Municipal Judge will place on the Municipal Court bench a man fitted in every way to honestly and fearlessly administer the duties of his position.

Vote for Lynden Evans for Congress in the Ninth district.

Vote for Arthur W. Fulton for Congress in the Sixth district.

That Frank L. Fowler will be elected to Congress in the Tenth District by a big plurality is the opinion of everybody who knows conditions in the district.

Vote for Robert E. Wilson for state representative in the Sixth district.

The United Electrical League, composed of members of all electrical workers' unions and representing every ward in the city, endorsed the candidacy of Edward F. Dunne for Governor. Fred W. Block was declared the candidate of the electrical workers for the Board of Review.

Vote for Stephen A. Malato for Municipal Judge.

Vote for Benjamin M. Mitchell for state representative in the Twenty-first district.

Vote for Harry L. Shaver for state representative in the Thirty-first district.

Vote for Frank L. Fowler for Congress in the Tenth district.

Vote for William J. Stapleton for state senator in the Sixth district.

Vote for Walter E. Schmidt for county assessor.

Vote for John J. McLaughlin for state representative in the Nineteenth district.

Illinois is due for a change in Governors.

Vote for Hugh J. Kearns for Municipal Judge.

BENJAMIN M. MITCHELL.
Practically Unopposed for Re-election to the Legislature in the Twenty-first District.

MUNICIPAL NEWS

Some Items of Interest From the Public Offices About Occurrences of the Week.

Necessity of an appropriation for the city's bureau of fire prevention and public safety was pointed out on Monday by Alderman Albert J. Fisher.

Alderman Fisher spoke before the members of the Englewood Woman's Club. He estimated that an appropriation of at least $100,000 should be made for the bureau's work next year.

"Municipal fire prevention," said the speaker, "is a great problem. This bureau, if properly equipped, will prevent 50 per cent of the present fire losses. I was told by Fire Marshal Seyferlich and Assistant Marshal McDonnell, the latter chief of the bureau, to say that every citizen should use his or her efforts to have the city appropriate sufficient money to get the bureau working next year."

The bureau was created several months ago. Whatever money is appropriated for its use next year will be made by the finance committee of the city council when it considers the annual budget.

An ordinance giving Marshall Field & Co. the right to build two tunnels under the Washington street side of its structure was recommended for passage by the streets and alleys committee of the city council.

As the ordinance was originally drawn up the company was given the right to construct a tunnel the width of East Washington street between Holden court and North Wabash avenue. This ordinance, by a tie vote, failed to pass.

At the meeting Monday the measure was amended so as to allow the firm to build a tunnel 80 feet wide and a sub-tunnel under it to be 20 feet wide. Representatives of improvement associations protested against the city giving private corporations the use of the streets underground.

New rules of the road will be devised by a subcommittee of two appointed by the City Council Subcommittee on complaints against street car service. The members of the second subcommittee are Aldermen Captain and Schultz. Alderman Captain told the subcommittee on complaints yesterday that one of the evils was the fact that vehicles were permitted to stand for long periods in front of stores.

Vote for Andrew Donovan for Congress in the First district.

Vote for Joseph S. La Buy for Municipal Judge.
